

2022 UNDERGRADUATE SEED SCIENCE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM
Iowa Seed Association (ISA), ISA 2022 Bill Latham Memorial Scholarship; Lisa Shepherd-Jenkins Memorial Scholarship; and Iowa Crop Improvement Association (ICIA) Scholarships.

Students wishing to apply for seed science scholarships should complete the application and requested information below and submit the materials by the requested deadline. The application deadline is 5:00 p.m. on Friday, January 21, 2022. Completed applications should be submitted electronically to Professor Susana Goggi at: susana@iastate.edu. These scholarships are awarded to undergraduate students on the basis of academic excellence, leadership skills, interpersonal skills, and a demonstrated interest in seed science and/or the seed industry. ISA will award several scholarships, including one Bill Latham Memorial Scholarship. Additionally, the ISU Seed Science Center will award one Lisa Shepherd-Jenkins Memorial Scholarship, and ICIA will award one scholarship. The recipients of these scholarships will also be selected by the Seed Science Scholarship Committee. The minimum scholarship award is $1,000.

Two Iowa Seed Association (ISA) scholarships will be awarded to students who have declared Seed Science as a secondary major. The remaining ISA scholarships will be open to students in any major in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences (including Agricultural and Biosystems Engineering) with a demonstrated interest in seed science or in a career related to the seed industry. In addition, an outstanding student classified as a senior will receive an extra $500 as a special scholarship. Students previously awarded two ISA scholarships are not eligible for a 2022 ISA scholarship but may be eligible for other scholarships.

ISA scholarship recipients are expected to attend a luncheon (free of charge) at the Annual ISA convention. This luncheon will be held at noon on Wednesday, February 13, 2022, at the site of the Convention, The Varied Industries Building at the Iowa State Fairgrounds in Des Moines. Transportation will be provided if needed. This requirement could change if the event is held virtually rather than in person.

DIRECTIONS:

1. Complete the personal data application form and obtain your adviser's signature verifying your academic information (attached/next page/reverse side).
2. Attach your letter or statement of interest document. Please highlight in your letter your qualifications according to those described in the rubric included in page 3 of this application.
3. Attach your resume, and if needed, a separate sheet outlining your work experience(s), including Seed Science Internship Experiences, if any.
4. Submit your completed application packet at one of the places designated above.

STATEMENT OF INTEREST DOCUMENT:

Write a statement of interest document, no more than two double-spaced pages, to the scholarship committee. This document should demonstrate your interest in a professional career in seed science and/or the seed industry. It also should relay to the selection committee your academic achievements, leadership achievements, and interpersonal skills. Also include your specific career and educational goals, recognized achievements, such as awards, honors, and scholarships, and community, student club, and service activities. These also may appear in either your resume or your statement of interest document. Send all correspondence to: Dr. Susana Goggi; Chair, Seed Science Scholarship Committee, Department of Agronomy, 195C Seed Science Center; email: susana@iastate.edu

WORK EXPERIENCE HISTORY:

Be sure to include a description of your work experiences and any internships in the seed science field. Provide the employer's name(s), your job title(s) and duties, and date(s) of employment. If you have taken Agron/Hort 491, provide a description of the project(s), dates, and the name(s) of the company and/or people with whom you worked.
